To whom it may concern:

It makes me extremely happy to recommend Christina for a teaching position. I have known Christina for the past ten years. In that time, Christina has spent majority of her time working with and for children. She has the heart and drive to become anything she sets her mind too.

Christina has not always had an easy path. She takes every struggle that comes her way as an opportunity to grow and become a stronger person. Christina is determined to become a teacher. Her determination is fueled by her huge heart. She cares deeply for everyone that crosses her path. Whether they are in her life for a year or a lifetime. Christina has the heart to give love to those that need it the most. Christina's determination and heart will make her an excellent teacher. Your students would be in great hands with her leading them.

While I have not had the honor to see Christina in a classroom, I have seen her interact with children on multiple occasions. She always interacts with the outmost respect towards children. She understands that every child has their own story and strives to know their background, so she can best help them achieve greatness.

Christina is the kind of person I would love to have teaching with me, and I know she will be an asset for your school. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Megan Wheeler
