To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to write a recommendation letter for Ms. Tami Nelson. She is an asset to our school. She has been a leader in our school in different capacities over the past two years. She has been a firm and integral part of the music department and she has built students' excitement for the instruments in her current school-based role as an Orchestra Teacher and Director. She is a mentor teacher to others both in our building and to those in other schools in Prince William County. She has a presence in the halls to help students maintain their best efforts and support the school vision. She works with others in her department to complete tasks both requested and required by administration. Ms. Nelson goes above and beyond to inspire a love for music in the students she has in her class and those not in her class that she notices may need some guidance. In the two years she has been at Reagan Middle, Ms. Nelson created a superb fiddleband with students from both the middle school, high school and community.

Ms. Nelson continues to take lessons to fine-tune her craft. She is a dependable and dedicated employee who is thorough in all that she does. She came to our school and helped create a more organized and student need driven program. She also organized and ensured the inventory, care and use of the instruments for Orchestra. She problem solves and gives suggestions in a respectful collegial way to ensure that, whatever the task, it is done with quality.

It is without a doubt, that I recommend Ms. Nelson for a position with you. She would be an asset anywhere she decides to go. I would be sad if it takes her away from here but I understand that she has familial obligations that require a change in location. Please feel free to contact me if you need more information about Ms. Nelson.

Sincerely,

Jenita Boatwright
